P
ri
or to 1998, Customs used to manually process Bills of Entry and other documents, taking the process from loading/unloading to clearance as well as inputting details of the transaction in the system, records were done on paper. With the advent of EDI, the physical verification of goods is done electronically.